

Still Simple Gifts

Still Simple Gifts began as an open invitation to anyone interested in learning to play the recorder. Twenty years later, this six-member musical group has evolved into an ensemble that creates delightfully varied, easy to enjoy music.

A Still Simple Gifts

performance may involve twenty to thirty different musical instruments - recorders, flute, clarinet, harp, bowed psaltery, autoharp, guitar, violin, harmonica, concertina, percussion, and others. Repertoire includes traditional recorder music, unique interpretations of Celtic, American, and European folk tunes, sacred music, and original compositions.

The group has recorded 5 CDs. More information can be found at www.stillsimplegifts.com.

There will be a reception following each concert.

There is no admission charge, but a "free will offering" will be received.

If you would like to help support our Concert Series, there is a level for everyone.

Lebanon Big Swing Band

The Lebanon Big Swing Band was formed in 1992 by Edgar Felty, Lee Moyer, and Karl Wolf, Jr., to provide an opportunity to present music of the Big Band Era. This 18-piece big band has been pleasing audiences in a variety of settings (dances, weddings, concerts, picnics, festivals, etc.).

Primarily playing the songs of the Big Band Era (1935-1955), they also showcase some of the standards from the 1960's and 1970's, arranged by local musicians. This leads to a variety in their program will appeals to many generations of listeners.

The seasoned musicians in this group give the band the ability to play many styles of music, and they will most certainly give a rousing start to this year's concert series.

Randy and Dawn Marks

"A Musical Ministry"

The Advent season will get a glorious start with the music and testimonial of Randy and Dawn Marks. Both Randy and Dawn have been ministering together for over 30 years throughout the East Coast in churches, retreats, Bible Conferences and civic groups. They blend an instrumental and vocal ministry within a repertoire of both traditional and contemporary music.

Dawn graduated from Millersville University with a B.S. in Music Education. She is presently retired from 35 years of teaching Elementary Music in the Cornwall-Lebanon School District. Randy is a graduate of West Chester (B.S. and M.M. in Music Education). He is also retired from teaching in both the ELCO and Cornwall-Lebanon School Districts. Currently he is employed part-time at Lebanon Valley College as a student teaching supervisor.

Come share the joy of music this holiday season with Randy and Dawn.
