

*SUNG RESPONSE Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus
Turn your eyes upon Jesus, look full in his wonderful face; and the things of earth will grow strangely dim in the light of his glory and grace.

PRESENTING OUR OFFERINGS
PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Generous God, you have given us life, a place to live in, and people to live with. Open our eyes to each other and to all our brothers and sisters, especially the poor, the oppressed, the alienated, the ones we do not understand, and the ones we disagree with. Make us humble enough to see and to care for them, so that your love and justice and peace may come to them. We boldly offer ourselves and our gifts to you and to the service of others, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

MORNING PRAYER

Holy God,
we come to you in worship and thanksgiving.
You are greater than we can understand;
open our eyes that we may see the wonderful truths you have shown to us in Jesus.
You are more loving than our hearts can respond to;
help us to give ourselves to you in worship so that we learn what you want us to be.
You are wiser than we can know;
still our minds as we worship you so that we can understand the things you are saying to us.
Loving God, in Jesus
you chose to come to the world in humility.
You chose the path the world saw as foolish.
You used what the world considered weak.
We worship and adore you. Amen.

*Hymn 339 Be Thou My Vision

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
all thoughts exposed.
Examine our hearts, our wills, our minds.
Reset and restore our thoughts, our hopes, and our loves.
So that we would love what you love, see what you see, and stand in your hope.
Make us your people, not only in name, but by how we engage the world, and by who we are becoming, in Jesus Christ.

Confession of Belhar 10.7

We believe

Isaiah 42:1-7

• that God has revealed God's self as the one who wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people;

Luke 6:20-26

• that God, in a world full of injustice and enmity, is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged;

Luke 4:16-19

• that God calls the church to follow God in this; for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry;

Luke 7:22

• that God frees the prisoner and restores sight to the blind;

Psalm 146

• that God supports the downtrodden, protects the stranger, helps orphans and widows and blocks the path of the ungodly;

James 1:27

• that for God pure and undefiled religion is to visit the orphans and the widows in their suffering;

Micah 6:8

• that God wishes to teach the church to do what is good and to seek the right;

Amos 5:14-15, 23-24

• that the church must therefore stand by people in any form of suffering and need, which implies, among other things, that the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice, so that justice may roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream;

Psalm 82:1-5

• that the church as the possession of God must stand where the Lord stands, namely against injustice and with the wronged;

Leviticus 19:15

• that in following Christ the church must witness against all the powerful and privileged who selfishly seek their own interests and thus control and harm others.

The Belhar Confession was added to the PC(USA) Book of Confessions in 2016. This confession was written in the early 1980s by the Dutch Reformed Church while they were in South Africa wrestling with theology and the practicality of living a life of faith in Christ in the face of apartheid.
