

Mission Week

For Youth and Adults

Begins Sunday, August 8th

The Mission Committee is planning a week of activities for everyone to give back to the community and share the Light of God in the world.

Sunday, August 8

Following the 10 AM Worship, in response to God's word, the congregation is encouraged to participate in mission projects that will be offered until about Noon. You may participate in as many of the activities as you wish.

Sunday Mission Projects:

- Writing cards to shut-ins, Veterans, and Mission Co-worker
- Tying No-Sew Fleece Blankets for UNTO
- Creating crossword puzzle boards for VA Hospital
- Recording a video to thank Veterans for their service

There will be a limited number of "Take-Home" projects that will be available for pick up Sunday 8/8 between 11 AM and Noon or through other arrangements made ahead of time. These will include crossword puzzle board assembly, sewing face masks, and writing cards to shut-ins and Veterans.

Basic Information for Monday through Saturday Mission Week activities:

- Please bring your own water to your activity to stay hydrated.
- Please use the Signup Genius on the church website to sign up or send an e-mail to or call Robin Gries to reserve your spot(s)
